Preamble

- Introduction or preface to the Constitution
- Provides guidelines for the Constitution
- embodies basic philosophy and fundamental values as basis for the Constitution
- Reflects dreams and aspirations of founding fathers of the Constitution.
- enacted after the rest of the Constitution was already enacted.
- neither a source of power to the legislature nor a prohibition
- non justiciable not enforceable in Courts of law.
- can be amended without altering the basic structure.

Ingredients of the Preamble

• Preamble makes people of India, the ultimate authority

- declares India as sovereign, socialist, secular democratic and republican polity.
- Objectives of the Constitution: justice, liberty, equality and fraternity
- Date of adoption of the Constitution: It stipulates November 26, 1949 as the date.

Key Terms related to Preamble

• Sovereignty: absolute Independence that is a Government which is not controlled by any other power: internal or external. A country cannot have its own Constitution without being sovereign. India is a sovereign country. It is free from any external control.

- Socialist: not part of the original Constitution.
  - o Added by 42nd Amendment act

- o used in the context of economic planning.
- commitment to attain ideals like removal of inequalities, provision of minimum basic necessities to all, equal pay for equal work.
- Secularism: added by 42nd Constitutional Amendment Act 1976.
  - India is neither religious nor irreligious nor antireligious.
  - no state religion- the state does not support any particular religion
- Democratic Republic: Government is elected by the people and is responsible and accountable to the people.
  - democratic provisions: Universal adult franchise, elections, Fundamental Rights and responsible Government.
  - Republic: the elected head of the state (President → indirectly elected) not a hereditary ruler as Britain.
- Justice: to give people what they are entitled to in terms of basic rights to food, clothing, housing, participation in decision making and living with dignity as human beings.
  - o taken from the Russian Revolution (1917)
  - three dimensions of Justice- social, economic and political.

Preamble as a part of the Constitution

- Social justice: equal treatment of all citizens without any social distinction based on caste, colour, race, religion, sex and so on.
- Economic justice: non-discrimination on economic factors.

Social justice + economic justice = 'distributive justice'

- Political justice: all citizens should have equal political rights, equal access to all political offices and equal voice in the Government.
- Liberty: of thought and expression; absence of restraints on the activities of individuals, and at the same time, providing opportunities for the development of individual personalities.

• taken from the French Revolution (1789–1799).

- Equality: absence of special privileges to any section of the society, and the provision of adequate opportunities for all individuals without any discrimination.
  - three dimensions of equality—civic, political and economic.
- Fraternity: sense of brotherhood; promotes the feeling of fraternity by a system of single citizenship and by article 51A (Fundamental Duties).

Union And Its Territory

Constitutional Provisions

• Articles 1- 4 in Part I of the Indian Constitution

Article	Provisions
1	Name and territory of the union
2	Admission or Establishment of new states
3	Formation of new states and alteration of boundaries or names of existing States
4	Laws made under art. 2 and 3 to amend I
	and IV Schedules and supplemental, incidental and consequential matters.

Article 1 : Name and Territory of the Union

- India, that is Bharat, shall be a Union of States.
- States and territories thereof shall be as specified in the First Schedule.
- Territory of India:
  - The territories of the States;
  - The Union territories specified in the First Schedule;
  - Such other territories that may be acquired.

Union of India:

- Includes only States enjoying the status of being members of the federal system and sharing a distribution of powers with the Union.
- Union Territories not included.

Territory of India:

- Includes States, UTs and such other territories as may be acquired by India.
- States and Territories specified in the First Schedule of the Constitution.

Dr. B.R. Ambedkar for preferring 'Union of States' to 'Federation of States':

- Indian Federation is not the consequence of agreement
   among the states like the American Federation
- States have no right to secede from the federation. Union is indestructible.
- Country is a single entity and divided into states for smooth administration.

Article 2 : Admission or establishment of new States

- New States may be admitted to Union or established by statute on the terms and conditions as Parliament deems appropriate.
- Eg. Parliament has admitted the French settlements of Pondicherry, Karaikal, Mahe and Yanam, the Portuguese settlements of Goa, and Daman, etc., into India.
- admission/ establishment of new states that were/are not part of India.

Article 3 : Formation of New State and alternation of Areas, boundaries or names of existing States.

- Parliament may by law :
  - Form a new State by separation of territory from any State or by uniting two or more States or parts of States or by uniting any territory to a part of any State;
  - Increase the area of any State
  - Diminish the area of any State
  - Alter the boundaries of any State,
  - Alter the name of any State:
- Bill proposing the above changes can be introduced in Parliament only with the prior recommendation of the President.
- Before recommending the bill, the President has to refer it to the concerned state legislature for its views within a specified period.
- Procedure:
  - President before introducing the bill in Parliament, should send the Bill to the State Legislature for its views to be sent within a time frame.
    - If it fails to do so, will be considered that views have been presented.
  - President has the authority to extend the time limit.
  - Parliament is not obligated to accept or act on the opinions of the State Legislature even if it presents them within the prescribed/ extended time frame.
