Constitutional System of Madhya Pradesh

State Legislature

- Articles 168-177 of the Indian constitution are related to the state Legislature.
- There is a unicameral state Legislature (Legislative Assembly) in Madhya Pradesh

Development of state Legislature in the state

- The Legislative Assembly was formed in the year 1957 after the formation of Madhya Pradesh in the year 1956.
- The initial number of members Legislative Assembly was 288, in which 43 seats were reserved for Scheduled Castes and 54 seats for Scheduled Tribes.
- The number of Legislative Assembly members was increased to 296 in 1976 while in 1999 it was further increased to 320. After the reorganisation of Madhya Pradesh in 2000 and the creation of Chhattisgarh, the number of seats in the Madhya Pradesh Legislative Assembly was reduced to 230, out of which 148 members are elected from Unreserved/General Category, 35 members from Scheduled Castes and 47 members from Scheduled Tribe.
- In addition, under Article 333, a member of the Anglo-Indian community is nominated by the Governor. This provision was abolished under 104th Constitutional Amend Act 2020.
